Please initial each line for acceptance & understanding & submit with your signed application. The following Rules & Regulations for the 124 Grand Market operations will be explicitly implemented at all times. No exceptions.

All products sold at the 124 Grand Market must be homemade (handcrafted), home grown, or home baked to be compliant with Alberta Agriculture’s rules pertaining to the operation of Farmers’ Markets. We do not allow a market compliance of more than 20% wholesale, resale, commercial retail or franchise business. The only exception to this stipulation will be B.C. Fruit. B.C vendors are not permitted sell vegetables as to adhere to Alberta Agriculture’s rules. ___

B.C. Fruit vendors may not sell fruit from areas outside British Columbia. Inspection slips must be presented. ___

If there is locally grown fruit or produce available, B.C. Fruit vendors are prohibited from selling the same product. Non-Alberta tomatoes are prohibited. B.C. grown vegetables, including peppers and greenhouse produce are not permitted. ___

All products must comply with all regulations of Alberta Health Services and 124 Grand Market. ___

All products sold at the 124 Grand Market must conform to Public Health Regulations and Standards of Cleanliness. I understand Alberta Health and Safety Regulations and Standards (see attached documents) and how they apply to me as a vendor. ___

Sales of commercial beverages: bottled water, juice and pop are only permitted by concession/foodtruck vendors. ___

All prepared foods must be wrapped or covered. Dairy products such as whipping cream, cream or custard pies are not allowed unless accompanied by appropriate documentation from Alberta Health, which must be displayed each week. ___

All eggs must be refrigerated as per Alberta Health regulations and labeled UNINSPECTED if applicable. ___

All samples must be covered and have toothpicks in them or be served by the vendor. Vendors providing samples must supply sneeze guards and garbage containers in a location easily visible and accessible to customers. All samples must be preportioned offsite. ___

As a food vendor, I have completed the Food Safety Course conducted by Alberta Health, I will provide a copy of my Food Safety Certification to the 124 Grand Market and will display my certificate in my stall. ___

Once your application has been accepted, any proposed additions or changes of your product line require approval from the Market Director. All food vendors within a year of starting the business must obtain a Food Health and Safety permit from Alberta Health Services. ___

All food vendors, including meat/poultry or anyone intending to sell prepared foods must review all Alberta Health Services documents. Vendors selling food must meet all food safety guidelines as outlined by Alberta Health Services. 124 Grand Market is a public market. Therefore, all food sold at the market must be prepared in an approved facility (commercial kitchen) with a valid food handling permit, which must be displayed at all times. Under no circumstances will vendors using a home kitchen be approved to sell at the 124 Grand Market. For further questions you can contact our health inspector. ___

Display and transport high risk foods at a temperature of 4°C or colder or 60°C or hotter. Keep frozen foods frozen solid while stored, displayed, or transported. Store, display and transport whole raw shell eggs at 7°C or colder. The eggs must be clean and free of cracks. ___

CFIA requires all food products are properly labelled under the Consumer Packaging and Labelling Act. Before creating a label for a food product please check the Guide to Food Labelling and Advertising found on the CFIA website (<http://www.inspection.gc.ca>). ___

All NSF cheques are subject to a fee of $50 and no future cheques will be accepted unless certified. ____

Cancellations prior to the start of the season or mid-season are subject a $40 fee and no refunds are given for confirmed space at the 124 Grand Market. ____

All vendors must supply their own tents, weights, tables, complete with covering, up to 10' x 10' per stall. The entire display including signage must be contained within the 10' x 10' allotted stall space. ____

Vendors must leave their stall area clean and remove all garbage from their stalls. Failure to do so will result in a fine. Vendors must dispose of garbage offsite. Garbage cans provided at the market are for CUSTOMERS ONLY. ____

All vendor vehicles must be turned off during unloading/loading. Unloaded vendors must park their vehicle off-site and then set up. Vendor vehicles not forming part of the market display must be parked off-site. NO EXCEPTIONS unless cleared in advance by the Market Director. ____

Advance stall assignments are at the sole discretion of the Market Directors. Stall assignments will be decided based on market mix as well as other factors, but not limited to vendor attendance, customer traffic, construction, special events, etc. 124 Grand Market has absolute authority to make adjustments to the market as we see fit. Your stall assignment could change weekly due to the size of the market place. ____

Vendors should be neat and clean in appearance, and must conduct themselves professionally at all times. Unprofessional conduct, including the use of profane language, smoking, cleanliness of the vendor or vendor's product, etc., may be considered grounds for dismissal from the market. Insubordination, the consumption of alcohol or drugs, or fighting during the market will be cause for immediate dismissal. No warnings are required nor are refunds given. ____
